

Rivendale on Hudson

14 WEST 46TH STREET.

Oct 5th 1890

General Oliver Osbyshell
Superintendent U. S. Mint
Philadelphia

Dear Sir

It is my painful duty to advise you of a serious accident which befell Miss Belle Camblos
yesterday afternoon.

While walking on the highway near my house at Rivendale,
she has run down

by some spectators
 who were riding at great speed and
 very seriously hurt.
 A broken collar bone,
 fractured rib, and
 severe contusion on the forehead are among the injuries. The physicians who are attending her report
 the condition as being as favorable as could be looked for under the circumstances, but I fear it will be several weeks before she is restored to her normal condition.

Very truly yours,
 Miss Camblos' serious
 and totally unexpected for accident, and asking your indulgence
 in her behalf I am Very truly yours,
 M. C. Dorian
 No 18 Broad St
 New York City

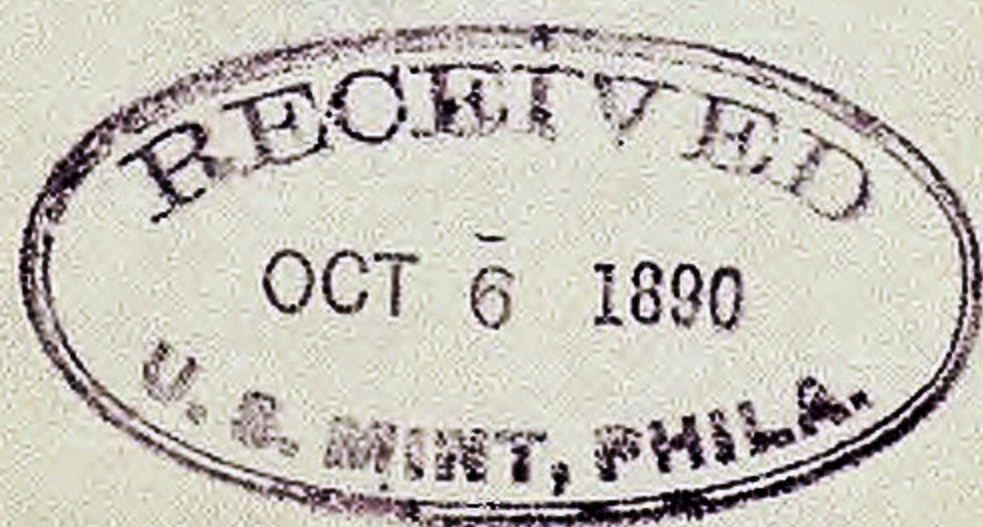

New York

Oct. 3. 1890.

M. C. Bowler.

Accident to Miss B.
Cambles.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 166

[Abstract:] Accident to Miss B. Camblos

Riverdale on Hudson 14 West 46th Street
October 5, 1890

General Oliver Bosbyshell
Superintendent U.S. Mint
Philadelphia

Dear Sir

It is my painful duty to advise you of a serious accident which befell Miss Belle Camblos yesterday afternoon. Whilst walking on the highway near my home at Riverdale, she was run down by some equestrians who were riding at very high speed and very seriously hurt. A broken collar bone, fractured rib, and severe contusion on the forehead are among the injuries. The physicians who are attending her report her condition as being as favorable as could be looked for under the circumstances, but I fear it will be several weeks before she is restored to her normal condition.

Greatly regretting Miss Camblos' serious and totally unlooked for accident and asking your indulgence in her behalf I am

Very truly yours
M.C. Bouvies
No. 18 Broad St.
New York City